UNDER TROPICAL CLIMATES. BALTIMORE, Md., June 4, 1854. fr. Nockbridge, of the Fountain Hotel, Light street,

Baltimore— Dear Sir: Being on the point of leaving the city, I avail myself of a few idle mements to thank you kindly for the medicine you sent me, and shirth has restored me to the use of my limbs. I beg you to send me four bottles more, to carry on my voyage. Sirce I had the fortune to use Dr. Hampton's Vege table Tincture my confidence is so strong that, in gratitude o the proprietors of said medicine, I beg you to present my respects to them, and in tuce them to make it more publicly known as a sure Rheumatic cure. Having called on me on the 19th of April last, and seen me prostrated on my bed, useless in all my li ubs, you can appreciate nea ly as well as myself the prompt relief I received from Dr. Hampton's Tineture, and I am positive had it not been for your strong and forcible recommendations I should still have been in bed.

It is really a pity this specific should not be approved by medical men, and like all patent drugs it should suffer the imputation the public generally give to such preparations. I myself, who was all ways opposed to a patented specific, took this me is cine with reluctance, and without confidence in it and it was only through your disinterested, friendly recommendations, and my critical situation that in duced me to try this really beneficial Vegetable

You may inform Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray that they are at lib-rty to make use of my name in the support of the good effects of Dr. Hampton's Vegetable Tincture, as it has cured me in five weeks of a chronic Inflammatory Rheumatism, contracted under tropical climates, and of seven years' periodical furation. I have only used three bottles, and find that even the deformed parts of my hands are fast eturning o their former matural appearance I have been under the treatment of several phy sicians in London and Paris, without any apparent enefit; also, while in New York, having tried the hompsonian and Homospathic remedies, after hav ng been tormented with galvanic ba teries, cold and aromatic baths, and hundreds of internal and external medicines, all to no effect, I am, so far cured by this Hampton's Vege able Tincture only Therefore, my ear sir, accept of the assurance my gratitude, and believe me your well wisher.

FASHION AND FAMINE -This is an American story but is now printed for the first time in this country. Two years ago it was published piecemeal, under the author's initials, in one of our cheap periodicals, with the title of "Julia Warren." We regret to seen it reprinted in a cheap form, and thus invested with facilities for circulating among the young and the half-educated, who are the chief readers of remantic and highly-seasoned fiction. It is a book such as no father would knowingly allow his daughter to read—a bad book of a bad class, of which Eugene Sae is the founder, Indeed, there is not an incident or a character that may be traced to one or other of his earlier works. We do not deny to "Fashion and Famine" the merit that may arise from the excitement of a highly improbable story, where incident is plied on incident, end; this merit the book certainly possesses. But as a work of fiction, it is tawdry and meretricous: the sensual materialism that oozes out of every page is sickly, prurient sentimentality with a hazy film of diseased virtue thrown over it, pervades the narrative, and reveals how completely French novels have been absorbed into the literary taste of America .- London Athenaum.

A FAMILY OF CPIUM LOVERS .- Some six months ago a person visited our town, asking money to purchase medicines for his mother, who was sick. Recently the same solicitor has been around on the same errand for other members of the same family; but the object to which the funds are applied is so objectionable a nature that all should withhold their names. The entire family, it is said, subsists, for the most part, on opium, or its exhilarating and soporitic influence, and this fearful habit has become a second

The example of Coleridge, who acknowledged it the basest and most destructive of vices, and at the same time the most absolute of tyrants, should, we think, be a sufficient warning to avoid the drug; but here is an example of a whole family addicted to the habit; and it has brought upon them all its certain results-apathy, indolence, poverty, misery-and will eventually end in the most wretched death .- Elmira Rep.
